

Read The Bible In A Year

New Hope United Methodist Church

The law of the LORD is perfect,
reviving the soul
The testimony of the LORD is sure,
making wise the simple.
The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart.
The commandment of the LORD is pure,
enlightening the eyes.
The fear of the LORD is clean,
enduring for ever.
The ordinances of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold, even
much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey and
drippings of the honeycomb.
Moreover by them is thy servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.

Psalm 19:7-11

Read the Bible in a Year Reading Guide

Throughout the year, our congregation will be reading through the Bible together. From Genesis to Revelation, we will hear and experience God's Word in worship, small groups and classes, music, mission projects and other special events.

If you'd like to read along through the Bible on your own, this guide is for you. We invite you to take some time each day to read, pray and open your heart to God's movement through the pages of Scripture.

In Second Timothy, Saint Paul compares the life of faith to the running of a race. If anything is needed in a long marathon, it's the ability to run at an even, steady pace to the finish line. Hopefully, this guide will help - breaking each section of the Bible into manageable daily reading assignments.

Of course, as you read on your own, we encourage you to find ways to get involved in reading with others in our congregation. The Bible was written for a people, for a community - and we can always learn more by sharing, praying and talking with others. Look for more information throughout the year on small groups, lectures and other opportunities as we move together through the Bible.

The Law

Now therefore write this song, and teach it to the Israelites; put it in their mouths, in order that this song may be a witness for me against the Israelites.

DEUTERONOMY 31:19

The Torah Scroll is a special, handwritten copy of the Torah, the first five books of Hebrew and Christian scriptures. It is the most holy of sacred writings in Judaism, used for ritual readings and stored in the holiest spot in the Synagogue.

Wisdom & Poetry

Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!

PSALM 150:3

The strings of a lute, similar to those of a guitar or violin, are suggested by the Psalmist as an instrument of praise. Like the words of the Psalms themselves, instruments aid in expressing the faith and hope of those in relationship with God.

Prophets

*And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"
And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "See,
I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel;
I will never again pass them by..."*

AMOS 7:8

A plumb line is used to determine if a building is upright and strong. Like the plumb line, the prophets tested and measured the faithfulness of God's people.

Gospels & Acts

Then he took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

LUKE 22:19

The Gospels tell the story of Christ, the living bread of heaven, who offers himself for our salvation. Acts records the story of the Church which -through the meal Christ began - is made into his body and through the power of the Holy Spirit, continues his work.

Letters & Revelation

At the same time pray for us as well that God will open to us a door for the word, that we may declare the mystery of Christ, for which I am in prison, so that I may reveal it clearly, as I should.

COLOSSIANS 4:3-4

Many of the letters of the New Testament were written from prison, a reminder of the struggle of faith from which they come.
